The Best Little Computer Gaming LAN Party in Arizona! November 11-13, 2011

WEB: <http://www.tuslan.net/>

WHAT: LAN party and video gaming at a Science Fiction Convention

WHERE: The Inn Suites Hotel in downtown Tucson, Arizona

HOST: TusCon, the 38th annual Science Fiction convention in Tucson, Arizona

Three days of LAN! Come in Friday afternoon to set up and LAN for a few hours, then leave your rig set up overnight in our secure hotel suite so you can come back Saturday morning for a full day of LAN action! And you don't have to worry about packing until Sunday afternoon after another night's rest and several more hours of LANning.

This event will be a combination LANparty and video gaming room. All participants in TusLAN will be members of the host, TusCon, and all members of TusCon may participate in TusLAN. Participants are invited to bring their own computers and set them up with a local area network provided by TusLAN. Additionally, some computers & video gaming consoles will be provided by TusLAN and/or its sponsors for participants to use. This will allow participants to play multiuser computer and video games without the time lag experienced on the Internet, and with personal interaction with the other players. TusLAN has been held at TusCon since 2000.

Check out the web site for details. Specifics of tournaments are still being determined, so if you have any preferences, please let us know.

The primary games anticipated at TusLAN are: Unreal Tournament 2004, Team fortress 2; Battlefield 2/3/Bad Company 2, & World of Warcraft. We will also have LAN console games.

TusCon memberships are $35 until 5/5, $40 until 9/1, and $45 after that and at the door. .

Discount for TusLAN members! Every TusLAN participant who brings a computer (Bring Your Own Computer: BYOC) will only have to pay $15 for Saturday, $30 for all three days! Participants who volunteer for staff duties will only have to pay $20 for their TusCon/TusLAN membership. Participants who bring additional computers or other LAN equipment for TusLAN use will be given additional discounts. Members bringing computers (BYOC) must register with the TusLAN director by email to obtain your discount and to assure space is available: tuslan@earthlink.net
